BECKHAM IS OUT

Has a Primary Decided on and Will Soon Announce.

Snow Storms in the State Today—Perpetual Injunction Against Prize Fights.

BRUCE HEAD IS WORSE

BECKHAM TO ANNOUNCE.

Frankfort, Nov. 26—The announcement of the candidacy of Governor J. C. W. Beckham for the Democratic nomination for re-election to the governorship will be made within next few days. The announcement will be followed very shortly by a friendly action in the courts to test the eligibility question raised by Hon. John K. Hendrick of Paducah, an aspirant for the nomination.

TO BE MADE PERPETUAL.

Louisville, Nov. 26—Judge Sterling B. Tony did not hand down a decision on the motion to make the injunction against the McGovern-Corbett prize fight perpetual. It is expected Saturday. The decision would have been rendered this morning but Judge Tony had not finished writing it. The opinion will be a very exhaustive one.

BRUCE HEAD WORSE.

Pittsburg, Nov. 26—Bruce Head's condition is somewhat alarming today on account of inflammation in the wound. His case is such as to preclude all possibility of Dr. Duncan getting out of jail this week on bail.

SNOW IN KENTUCKY.

Owensboro, Nov. 26—A heavy snow storm commenced falling this morning at 9 o'clock and continued for more than an hour. It is the first snow of the season.

SNOW IN INDIANA.

Evansville, Nov. 26—The first snow of the season fell this morning but melted at once.

A PADUCAH ATTORNEY.

COMPLIMENTED BY THE LOUISVILLE TIMES YESTERDAY.

Yesterday's Louisville Times contains a picture of Attorney James B. Ray, and the following notice:

"He is a product of Bardwell, a graduate of West Point Military Academy and a very promising young lawyer. His friends are pleased at his appointment as private secretary to Judge T. J. Nunn, of the court of appeals bench. Mr. Ray is a son of the Hon. W. C. Ray, former representative from Ballard and Carlisle counties and a brother of John W. Ray, private secretary to Judge J. D. White."

REPORTED COMPROMISE.

It is reported that a compromise has been effected in Graves county between J. E. Mason and Dr. Hargrove, two prominent men of Hickory Grove. Mason recently filed a suit for $5,000 damages against Hargrove, claiming that the latter beat him up without provocation. The amount of the compromise is said to be $300.

The Ten Broeck is due out of Tennessee river with ties.

RING OUT THE OLD

This is What the Western Union is Now Doing to Agents.

Former Ballard County Man Loses Out in Memphis After Forty Years' Service.

MR. PHIL KERN PROMOTED

The Western Union Telegraph company is apparently determined to retire all its old managers and put in young men. A short time ago, as already well known here, Manager J. R. Coburn, of the local agency, was discharged without warning, and Mr. Sam Quisenberry put in his place.

Yesterday Mr. Emmet Howard, formerly a forty years manager of the Western Union office at Memphis, was let out and succeeded by Mr. Phil Kern, of Louisville, who was in Paducah last week to wind up Manager Coburn's business with the American District Telegraph company.

Mr. Howard, the veteran manager, let out, is a Kentuckian, and a native of Ballard county. The first position he ever held was at Blandville, Ballard county, nearly half a century ago, where there was at one time a telegraph office, but has not been for several years.

He went to Memphis and went to work for the Western Union, and is now said to be quite wealthy, and in a position to be retired. Mr. Kern, the young man who succeeds him, has had wonderful advancement. He entered the employ of the company eighteen years ago as a messenger boy, and has since then advanced to the position of manager of the Louisville office. He has been subsequently became one of the fastest and most reliable operators in this less than opportunity for abuses. A country, and was at Frankfort during the Goebel assassination trouble, when one night 40,000 words were sent over his company's wires and there was not a single complaint.

His executive ability is said to be great, and he has many friends in Paducah who will be pleased to learn of his promotion.

Mr. J. R. Coburn, of Paducah, has not yet received any notice of what the company is to do with him. He is still in Nashville and it may be will arrange while there to remain with the company, as it is said the company intends to take care of him, and retain him in some capacity.

BOTH RELEASED.

NOTHING COULD BE LEARNED IN THE BANKS CASE.

Robert Banks and Jane Sansberry, colored, who were locked up yesterday until the police could investigate the affair in which Banks was shot in the right leg, were released last night, as the police could not find out anything that would throw any light on the mystery.

They do not believe that Banks was shot by robbers, but that he either shot himself accidentally while walking along to work carrying his pistol in his hand for protection or was shot in a fight.

DOCTORS MEET TONIGHT.

Drs. Reddick and Coleman this afternoon held a conference with several other local physicians and decided to hold a meeting of the Medical society tonight. The meeting will be held at the office of Dr. Stewart and all members of the society are requested to be in attendance. The statement on the inside of the paper that there would be no meeting is an error.

THE SUN THANKSGIVING DAY.....

Will be issued at noon to give its employees the opportunity of celebrating the holiday.

WIRES CAME DOWN

Considerable Damage Done Last Night by Telephone Wires.

City Street Lights Had to All be Shut Off—Many Phones Burned Out.

FIRE ALARM SYSTEM HURT

The sagging of wires of the Independent Telephone company last night on West Tennessee street near Wor-ton's Addition caused considerable damage in Paducah and resulted in the street lights being shut off all over the city about 11 o'clock.

I found 64 children under 14 years of age, of which number 27 were dismissed at my instigation. In 27 Western Union office at Memphis was let out and succeeded by Mr. Phil Kern, of Louisville, who was in Paducah last week to wind up Manager Coburn's business with the American District Telegraph company.

Mr. Howard, the veteran manager, let out, is a Kentuckian, and a native of Ballard county. The first position he ever held was at Blandville, Ballard county, nearly half a century ago, where there was at one time a telegraph office, but has not been for several years.

He went to Memphis and went to work for the Western Union, and is now said to be quite wealthy, and in a position to be retired. Mr. Kern, the young man who succeeds him, has had wonderful advancement. He entered the employ of the company eighteen years ago as a messenger boy, and has since then advanced to the position of manager of the Louisville office. He has been subsequently became one of the fastest and most reliable operators in this less than opportunity for abuses. A country, and was at Frankfort during the Goebel assassination trouble, when one night 40,000 words were sent over his company's wires and there was not a single complaint.

A YEAR OLD

RETAIL GROCERS VERY PROUD OF THEIR SHOWING.

The Retail Grocers' association is a year old, and will tonight celebrate with a smoker at its hall over Oehlschlaeger and Walker's. The annual election of officers will be held first, after which there will be cigars and refreshments, and a general good time. The association is jubilant because it is the first grocers' association that ever lasted a year in Paducah.

It is likely the present efficient corps of officers will be re-elected. Mr. E. W. Bockman is president, Mr. Will H. Farley secretary and Mr. Henry Kam-leiter treasurer.

Mr. Joe Desberger has gone to St. Louis to participate in a minstrel to be given for charity there.

MORE DISRUPTION

Democratic Executive Committee Calls a Primary for May 9 1903

A Howl Raised by the Other Side and Restraining Order Filed at Frankfort.

DEMOCRATS ALL WORKED UP

Frankfort, Nov. 26—There were all kinds of politicians in the city yesterday to attend a meeting of the Democratic state executive committee. A secret meeting was held with all members but two present, and the committee voted to hold a state primary May 9, 1903, with only two dissenting votes, Messrs. C. M. Meacham and Ben Ringo.

After the committee had decided the question Mr. Meacham sued out a restraining order to prevent the primary, and the question will be fought in the courts within ten days. It is contended that the committee had no right to call a primary.

There is much dissatisfaction among Democratic politicians, and it is impossible to foretell what will be the result.

GO TO LOUISVILLE.

PADUCAH SHRINERS LEAVE TONIGHT FOR THE METROPOLIS.

Dr. C. E. Whitesides, Major J. H. Ashcraft, Messrs. Earl Palmer, W. H. Bowman and Captain B. B. Davis leave tonight for Louisville to attend the initiation of a big class of Shriners there tomorrow. They leave at 1:20 o'clock and expect to return Friday. There will be about one hundred in the class that is to be initiated, and the work begins at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. A big banquet will be served afterwards.

Among those from Paducah who will go with the above and probably become Shriners are the following, most of whom have already petitioned for admittance: Messrs. John Oehlschlaeger, Harry Hank, George Katterjohn, W. J. Hills, George Ingram, James Sleeth, Clarence Milam, E. R. Dutt, Luther Graham, of Paducah, and J. D. Rowlett of Murray.

GAME CALLED OFF.

NO FOOTBALL TOMORROW ON ACCOUNT OF THE GROUNDS.

The football game advertised for Thanksgiving day between the Hopkinsville and Paducah teams has been called off by Mr. Henry Rudy, captain of the local team on account of the condition of the grounds. There will be no game between these two teams this season as this closes the season. The first and only game played between the Hopkinsville and Paducah teams resulted in a tie, and both sides were anxious for another game to decide the strongest team.

THE TRAIN WRECKED

Stock Man Killed, But no One Else Injured in the Smash-up.

Extra Freight Strikes the Regular Train at Belleville Last Night.

MUCH DAMAGE DONE

An extra freight train on the Illinois Central collided with No. 375, the train which arrives in Paducah from the St. Louis division at 7:45 a. m., at Belleville, Ill., 14 miles miles out of St. Louis about 11 o'clock last night and killed an unknown stock man who was on his way from the west with a carload of goats for Vine Grove, Ky.

The trains hit in Belleville, and about seven cars of merchandise and stock were demolished, together with the engines. None of the train men were hurt. It is understood that the engineer on the extra freight, which was coming into Belleville down a steep grade, claims that his air wouldn't work.

The stock man is supposed to be a Kentuckian. All the way bills and other papers were destroyed in the wreck, hence his name could not be learned.

The train arrived in Paducah three hours late this morning.

GOOD WATER COMING

Prospects for all That is Needed by the Last of the Week.

The Hopkins Starts Tomorrow After a Long Lay Up—Other Packets.

The river report today indicates that there will be plenty of water the latter part of the week, and the river men are very happy as a result of the outlook. For many months most of the big boats have been forced to remain at bank on account of the low stage of water, but the prospect is now for twelve or fifteen feet before Saturday.

Tomorrow the John S. Hopkins, which has been thoroughly repaired and is in first class condition, will resume in the Paducah and Evansville trade, and the other boats will go out as rapidly as possible. It is expected that coal will come out of Pittsburg before the end of the week. There are now over 25,000,000 bushels awaiting shipment.

It is likely that the new City of Savannah, which has been on the cottonwood bar six or seven miles above the city for several months, will be off by the time the company's other new boat, the Shiloh, reaches Paducah, and both may proceed to St. Louis together.

WENT TO JAIL.

YOUNG COBB WAIVES EXAMINATION ON TWO CHARGES.

B. H. Cobb, the young man of Mayfield who was arrested on two charges of obtaining money by false pretenses by pretending to represent a Chicago company, and having the authority to employ agents, was presented today in the police court and waived examination in two cases, being held to answer in the sum of $300 in each case, which he failed to give.

Yesterday afternoon a brother of the young man arrived from Graves county to see about giving bond for him. He is S. M. Cobb, of near Farmington, Graves county, and is 58 years old. It was the first time he ever rode on a passenger train, and he probably wouldn't have done it then if the dirt roads were not so bad.

Cobb expects other relatives this afternoon to arrange for his bond.

MRS. BRUNE VERY ILL

The Popular Actress is Unable to Come to Paducah Today.

Cancelled This Morning—Sale Over $600 and Still Growing When News Came.

UNABLE TO LEAVE MEMPHIS.

Manager James E. English, of The Kentucky theater, is a badly disappointed man today, and so will the public be disappointed when it learns that Mrs. Brune, whose appearance at The Kentucky here in "Unorna" they were anxiously awaiting, is unavoidably unable to fill her engagement tonight owing to her serious illness at Memphis.

The first telegram conveying this intelligence was as follows:

Memphis, Nov. 28.

Mrs. Brune ill. Doctors refuse to let her play. Must cancel.

Signed: C. B. CLARKE, Manager.

Manager English wired further and learned positively about 10 o'clock that the star would be unable to come and immediately posted notices to that effect. Once in the forenoon a report was started that the company was coming, Mrs. Brune having improved, but it proved to be a canard.

The advance sale at The Kentucky was $600 this morning, and would have been $1000 by night. Manager English regrets the unexpected cancellation very much from a financial as well as social standpoint, as the audience would have been one of the largest that ever assembled in his theater.

Mrs. Brune was to open the Marlowe theater at Jackson, Tenn., last night, where tickets were $10 a seat, but was forced to cancel. She was also forced to cancel a $2,000 advance sale at the Lyceum, Memphis, for Thanksgiving.

It was learned today that she has been ill since last Friday but her manager kept it from the public thinking that she would recover and be able to fill her engagements.

The box office at The Kentucky will be open from 7 to 8 p. m. tonight to refund money or exchange tickets for the Grace Cameron Opera company, which will be here tomorrow night.

This is the first cancellation after a show had been advertised and the sale begun, that Manager English has had since The Kentucky was opened over a year ago, and it will be generally regretted that fate willed it should be one of the best attractions on the road. It is not known at present whether Mrs. Brune will be able to play an engagement here this season or not. She will probably resume her tour as soon as she recovers, but as her time is all pretty well filled in she may not be able to get to Paducah at all this season.

BOGUS DOLLARS.

FIVE TURNED INTO ONE BANK YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

The local police are keeping a lookout for counterfeiters who are passing bogus money in the city. Yesterday five spurious silver dollars were turned into the City National bank by merchants who had been taken in by the grafters. The dollars are all dated 1899 and are fairly good imitations. The fact of the counterfeiters operating here was yesterday reported to Captain Henry Bailey, and he has instructed all merchants to keep a lookout and notify the police when a spurious coin is presented.

PAINFUL BURNS.

MR. T. W. DOLBERRY HURT THIS MORNING WHILE PUTTING OUT A FIRE.

Mr. T. W. Dolberry, the well known postoffice clerk, had both hands painfully burned this morning about 10:30 o'clock in his room in the Yeiser building at Fifth and Broadway. The stove pipe fell, and in replacing it and preventing the fire from reaching his valuable library he burned both hands and wrists so badly that he was forced to lay off until he recovers the use of them.

Where He Was Going.

During the session of the British parliament in 1879, James Lowther, the chief secretary for Ireland, rose from his seat and was hurriedly leaving the house just as Mr. Synan, an Irish representative with a very loud voice, began to call attention to some Irish grievance. Another Irish member, thinking it strange that the chief secretary should leave the chamber when a question relating to Ireland was being brought forward, called out: "Hi, hi! Lowther! where are you going?" Turning as he reached the door, Mr. Lowther coolly replied: "I am going out on the terrace to hear Synan."

BACK TAXES DUE

THE COUNTY WILL COLLECT
OVER $3,000 FROM RAIL-ROADS.

The Illinois Central and N. C. and St. L. railroads will have to pay to McCracken county about $3500 in back franchise taxes. The companies contended that they did not have to pay franchise tax for county purposes, but some of the county attorneys of the state, seeing a chance to get a snug little rakeoff, organized after about five years of the alleged taxes were due, and proposed to make a fight to collect the tax on condition that the counties give them one-fourth, which was agreed to. Suit was brought by one of the attorneys and taken to the court of appeals as a test case, and finally decided against the railroads, it being held that they must pay franchise tax for county purposes as well as state. The amount due is for five years, and County Clerk Graham has received from Frankfort a certified statement of the amount due, which County Attorney Graves will collect.

IS UNDECIDED

REV. CAVE DOES NOT KNOW WHETHER OR NOT HE WILL ACCEPT CALL.

Rev. W. E. Cave, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, who has been formally called to the First Presbyterian church at Raleigh, N. C., is ill today and unable to be out, but authorized the statement that he had nothing to give out, and did not know what he will do.

Rev. Cave preached at Raleigh about three weeks ago, and it was almost immediately decided to call him to the pastorate, but it was not done formally until a congregational meeting was held Monday.

Rev. Cave has within the past year declined three calls from the largest Presbyterian church in Petersburg, Va.

DONATION PARTY.

REV. G. W. PERRYMAN PLEAS-ANTLY SURPRISED LAST EVENING.

Last night the members of the First Baptist church gave their pastor, Rev. G. W. Perryman, a surprise donation party.

The party had been secretly planned and Rev. Perryman knew nothing of the intended surprise until the members came in with their donations. One of the rooms in the parsonage was well filled with the good things brought. An informal social was held until late in the evening and the affair was a success in every particular.

A DANGEROUS MONTH.

This is the month of coughs, colds and acute catarrh. Do you catch cold easily? Find yourself hoarse, with a tickling in your throat and an annoying cough at night? Then you should always have handy a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup. J. A. Anderson, 354 West Fifth St., East Lake City, writes: "We use Ballard's Horehound Syrup for coughs and colds. It gives immediate relief. We know it's the best remedy for these troubles. I write this to induce other people to try this pleasant and efficient remedy." 25c, 50c and $1 at DuBois, Kolb and Co.

NO MEETING.

THIS IS THE TIME FOR MEDICAL GATHERING BUT OFFICERS ARE ABSENT.

Tonight is the regular meeting night for the McCracken county Medical Society, but as no one has the authority to designate a meeting place, and as Dr. Horace Rivers, the secretary, is out of the city, there will probably be no meeting. Dr. Holland, of Grahamville, the president of the society, is also absent from the county and will not be able to attend.

BEST LINIMENT ON EARTH.

L. M. McHany, Greenville, Tex., writes, Nov. 2, 1900: "I had rheumatism last winter, was down in bed six weeks; tried everything, but got no relief till a friend gave me a part of a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment. I used it, and got two more bottles. It cured me and I haven't felt any rheumatism since. I can recommend Snow Liniment to be the best liniment on earth for rheumatism." For rheumatic, sciatic or neuralgic pains rub in Ballard's Snow Liniment; you will not suffer long, but will be gratified with a speedy and effective cure. 25c, 50c and $1 at DuBois, Kolb and Co.

DIED IN LOUISVILLE.

FORMER PADUCAH WOMAN EX-PIRES IN MASONIC HOME.

Mrs. Nancy H. Prewitt, formerly of Mayfield and Paducah, died at the Masonic Widows' and Orphans' Home yesterday afternoon of Bright's disease, says yesterday's Courier-Journal. Mrs. Prewitt was 86 years of age and had been an inmate of the home since September, 1900. She was an invalid and since being in the city was not able to leave her room. Her husband, Dr. J. B. Prewitt, was a prominent dentist of Paducah, and was well known in that section of the state. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home and will be conducted by the Rev. Dr. U. W. MacMillan, of the Oak street Cumberland Presbyterian church. The interment will be in Cave Hill.

WON'T BE CRUSHED.

To the Editor of The Daily Sun:
Dear Sir: I sent you a poem last week and asked you to publish it in your paper. You declined and returned it to me with the crushing reply that I was no poet, and that you could "turn out better poetry out of a sausage machine." Now I won't be crushed, and propose to show up your attempt to throttle bubbling genius. Publish this card and the following poem in your columns and charge me at your advertising rates. Yours,
James Metcalf Riley.

THE POEM.

I stood upon the ocean's sandy beach,
And with a reed I wrote upon the sand
these words,

"Agnes, I love thee!"

But the winds came and the waves rolled mountains high,
And blotted out the fair impression.
Cruel waves, treacherous sand, fragile
reed;

No longer will I trust to thee.

But from the highest mountain peak

I'll pluck the tallest pine,

And, dipped in the crater of Vesuvius,

with it I will write

Upon the high and burnished heavens

these words:

"A Wise Woman is drawing the largest audiences ever known

And giving an entertainment that will take your breath away."

And I would like to see any dog-gone wave wash that out.

ROLLED DOWN EMBANKMENT.

Mr. C. F. Renfrow, who travels for Weeks Brothers, met with a painful accident at Obion, Tenn. on his regular trip night before last. While attempting to catch a train he fell and rolled down an embankment with his sample cases on top of him, and had to come in yesterday to recuperate.

Mr. Aubrey Barsdale of the firm, went out to finish the trip.

KENTUCKIANS ORGANIZING.

TO PUSH THE WORK OF RAIS-ING A FUND FOR WORLD'S FAIR.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 26—By the end of this week an organization in practically every county in Kentucky will have been perfected, under the direction of the Kentucky Exhibit Association. During the past week President A. Y. Ford wrote personal letter to a large number of citizens in every county, acquainting them with the purposes of the association and urging their hearty co-operation, informing local committees to push the work toward raising $100,000 for a Kentucky building and creditable representation in exhibits of Kentucky's resources and products at the world's fair in St. Louis in 1904. These letters went to representative citizens, with an outline of the plan as accepted by the board of directors of the association at its meeting on November 15. The plan of county organization is divided into eleven paragraphs, and has been issued in circular form to accompany all letters sent to citizens out in the state, asking them to join in the movement. Mr. Ford and other members of the association are now confident that the money will be raised.

An Education At A Nominal Cost.

(Catalogues and Journal Free.)

The Southern Normal School and Bowling Green Business college, of Bowling Green, Kentucky, are two of the greatest schools of the kind in the south. During the year just closed, more than 1,000 different boarding students matriculated, more than three hundred of these being in the business college alone. The institution is magnificently equipped and the work is thoroughly organized. Specialists are in charge of the various departments and the instruction is high class and thorough. The Normal School operates the schools of Law, Music, Elocution and Oratory, Pedagogy and the Preparatory, County Certificate, State Certificate, Junior Scientific, Senior Scientific and Classical Courses. The Business college embraces the departments of Penmanship, Stenography and Typewriting, Telegraphy and Civil Service, and in addition the regular courses in Book-keeping. Expenses are very reasonable. The business college does the finest work of any in the south in getting lucrative positions for its graduates. Those interested are cordially invited to send for catalogue and circulars. Address

To the People of Paducah:

Our telephone plant is nearing completion and will be an up to date system in every particular.

We come before you as a public enterprise believing that our progressive city should not be behind the other cities in this greatest of public conveniences. We propose to let the people be the judge as to the merit of our business and the service to be given, and all we ask is an opportunity to demonstrate our claims.

Our rates are reasonable and will be made known on application.

Our apparatus and telephones are the latest and best made. Asking a consideration of our claims and promising to carry out our motto of, "We aim to please and satisfy the people," we are,

Very respectfully,

LOOK OUT FOR CATARRH

When the cold wave flag is up, freezing weather is on the way. Winter is here in earnest, and with it all the miserable symptoms of Catarrh return—blinding headaches and neuralgia, thick mucous discharges from the nose and throat, a hacking cough and pain in the chest, bad taste in the mouth, fetid breath, nausea and all that makes Catarrh the most sickening and disgusting of all complaints. It causes a feeling of personal defilement and mortification that keeps one nervous and anxious while in the company of others.

In spite of all efforts to prevent it, the filthy secretions and mucous matter find their way into the Stomach and are distributed by the blood to every nook and corner of the system; the Stomach and Kidneys, in fact every organ and part of the body, become infected with the catarrhal poison. This disease is rarely, if ever, even in its earliest stages, a purely local disease or simple inflammation of the nose and throat, and this is why sprays, washes, powders and the various inflaming mixtures fail to cure. Heredity is sometimes back of it—parents have it and so do their children.

In the treatment of Catarrh, anti-septic and soothing washes are good for cleansing purposes or clearing the head and throat, but this is the extent of their usefulness. To cure Catarrh permanently, the blood must be purified and the system relieved of its load of foul secretions, and the remedy to accomplish this is S. S. S. which has no equal as a blood purifier. It restores the blood to a natural, healthy state and the catarrhal poison and effete matter are carried out of the system through the proper channels. S. S. S. restores to the blood all its good qualities, and when rich, pure blood reaches the inflamed portions of the body, they soon heal, the mucous discharges cease and the patient is relieved of the most offensive and humiliating of all complaints.

S. S. S. is a vegetable remedy and contains nothing that could injure the most delicate constitution. It cures Catarrh in its most aggravated forms, and cases apparently incurable and hopeless. Write us if you have Catarrh, and our physicians will advise you without charge.

Observations ....at Random

Mr. Robert Phillips, who left with Superintendent W. J. Hills of the N., C. and St. L. road, yesterday on a hunting trip, went with both a borrowed dog and borrowed gun, notwithstanding the fact that he has a gun of much value and one of the best hunting dogs in the state.

Mr. Phillips has spent during the summer for guns and dogs something in the neighborhood of $500, and was patiently awaiting the time when he could get off on a hunt. Last week a friend borrowed his dog and later another friend asked the use of his fine gun for several days. When the party left yesterday Mr. Phillips was unable to secure either his dog or gun, the dog being down in Marshall county and the gun still in the hands of his friend, whose whereabouts he was not familiar with. As a consequence Mr. Phillips had to borrow both a gun and dog.

There came near being a shooting scrape on the Joe Fowler yesterday morning, but no one knew it, not even the man who had the gun. It appears a young man of Paducah enticed a country girl from Illinois to the city, and her father came after her. He had a great big pistol and an insatiable thirst for blood, but he could not find any trace of the man and girl. Although he discovered where the girl was registered at the hotel Saturday night, he was unable to find any trace of his daughter, but declared when he found the man there.

He talked liberally to the clerk on the boat, and got off at Metropolis, where the very man he was looking for got on, and neither knew the other as they passed. The clerk remembers seeing the couple come up Saturday night from Metropolis. The much sought man was gladly relieved yesterday when informed that a big man with a big gun who was looking for him had disembarked at the landing when he boarded the boat, and passed within a few feet of him without knowing he was the man he sought.

MR. HARRY G. TANDY MAY NOT BE ABLE TO RUN IN PRIMARY.

The Louisville papers quote Mr. Harry G. Mr. Tandy, it is understood, has been wiped from the Beckham slate, and was opposed to a primary.

Mr. C. H. Sherrill has returned to the city after a trip through the country.

WAS WELL PLEASED

State Factory Inspector Ludwig Talks of His Trip.

Found Seventy-four Children in Factories Who Could Not Read or Write—Illiterate Adults.

BETTER THAN EXPECTED

State Factory Inspector Andrew Ludwig, who has returned to Louisville after inspecting the factories here and in Mayfield, has expressed himself as greatly pleased with his trip.

He said to a Courier-Journal reporter:

"My trip was entirely satisfactory," said Mr. Ludwig, "and I am well pleased with its results. In Paducah and Mayfield, the only two towns I visited, I inspected 65 factory manufacturing plants. In those establishments I found 64 children under 14 years of age, of which number 27 were dismissed at my instigation. In 27 cases I demanded and was furnished sworn statements from their parents that they were over 14 years old, and I allowed them to continue their work."

"There were 74 children who could not read or write. Fifty-eight of them under 16 years of age had charge of machines. I recommended to the owners of 34 establishments that they furnish the necessary safety devices to prevent accidents to their operatives."

"This is a brief summary of my trip in the western part of the state. However, there were other results which will benefit the state materially in the way of statistics and other information, of which no record has been kept heretofore."

"In regard to my trip I will say that I found the conditions somewhat better than I did in factories in this city. This is caused by the fact that the manufacturing outside of Louisville are smaller than those here, and there is thus less opportunity for abuses. A large number of children have been affected by the law, many of them being forced to give up their work and attend school. This is true of Louisville especially, where there has been a marked increase in attendance at the public schools. Many of the children, I have found, do not want to go to school, and assert that they don't care for an education."

"It is also quite surprising to me that there are a very large number of adult employees of manufacturing establishments I have visited who are illiterate. Many of them cannot read or write, and it has caused many of them to be placed in embarrassing situations. The owners of manufacturing establishments where I have made inspections seemed perfectly willing to cooperate with me in the enforcement of the law, and have all taken steps to provide the safety devices I have recommended. In many cases infractions of this kind were found to be the result of carelessness and ignorance of conditions rather than a refusal to comply with the law."

TO LONE OAK.

NEW TELEPHONE LINE THERE COMPLETED TODAY.

The telephone line to Lone Oak has about been finished and by the latter part of the week will be in working order.

The Cumberland people have been pushing into new territory and advancing branch lines wherever a sufficient number of subscribers can be obtained. Manager Joyner thinks that the line will be completed by tomorrow and will be in perfect working order by Friday. There are fifteen regular subscribers at Lone Oak and many additions to the list have been talked of. No toll fee will be charged to telephone, the connections being made from the residence phones as is done in telephoning in the city.

Nerves

As Steady as Clock Work.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Made Them So

After Years of Heart and Nerve Trouble.

Weak and hungry spells indicate a nervous affection of the heart. The nerves are not getting the nourishment they need, and unless treatment is speedily begun, disastrous results are sure to follow. When strengthened, invigorated and restored to their normal state the nervous system abounds in energy, vitality and nerve-force, and successfully resists the attack of disease and decay. Dr. Miles' Nervine is the true nervine, furnishing, as it does, the exact element of nourishment and strength which the shattered nervous system requires, so that good results, noticeably pronounced, follow the giving of the first few doses. It is a wonderful nerve specific.

"For many years I was a sufferer from heart and nervous troubles. I would have spells when I would be uncommonly hungry even after eating; headache, sour stomach, griping pains, weak, trembling, spells, me sometimes quite severe. The doctor gave only temporary relief from pain and I decided to try Dr. Miles' Remedies. I began with one bottle of the Heart Cure and one of the Restorative Nervine, and they helped me so much that I got some more. When I had taken six bottles my nerves were as steady as clock-work. I could eat anything I wanted and as much as I wanted without it hurting me. I thank Dr. Miles for the good it has done me."—JOHN B. ADAMS, Glenn, Ga.

DAILY THOUGHT.

"It is while you are patiently toiling at the little tasks of life that the meaning and shape of the great whole of life dawns upon you. It is while you are resisting little temptations that you are growing stronger."

IS IT REAL?

A peculiar feature of the pious effort started to regulate the city government by the second class charter is that the crowd who filed the recent "injunction suit," and who are closely in touch with the mayor and the present administration, are now very energetic in enforcing this same new charter. It is presumed they are sincere, and want to serve the city and the people, something they are a little late in the day in doing, judging from their official career since they have been in office.

It is a noticeable fact, however, that the mayor and his stand-bys in the boards seem to be very much in favor of enforcing the charter against Messrs. Crow and Gilbert, marshal and prosecuting attorney respectively, whose privileges are so likely to be curtailed. Now it seems a little strange that the mayor, who will himself be hanging by the skin of his teeth, as it were, this time next year, is so anxious to have the provisions of the second class charter applied to Marshal Crow and is still determined not to have them applied to himself, if he can prevent. The second class charter does not provide for a city marshal; neither does it provide for the election of a mayor except in certain years, and one of those is 1903, next year. If the mayor is anxious for the city officials to conform to this new charter he ought to be willing to get them a good example and conform to it himself by conceding that an election of mayor, under this same charter, is necessary next year. This would be better than throwing the city into chaotic litigation by refusing to give up.

There are many, painful to say, who declare that the whole move tending to separate some of the officials from their commissions and perquisites is designed simply to create trouble, and to prejudice people against the second class charter, by those who have been opposed to it from the start, and are doubtless still opposed to it. It is hoped that this is not true, but it is a little peculiar that the crowd that has fought the second class charter from the word go should now be so enthusiastic over enforcing it against some of the officials.

If they are not in earnest it will crop out some of these days; if they are wolves they will in time be divested of their sheep's clothing. If their only object is to create and continue a chaotic state of affairs they deserve censure instead of commendation, for no good will come to the people from such motives.

And it is hoped that Mayor Yeiser will gracefully agree to abide by the charter himself, and after he and his friends in the boards get through forcing these other officials to do so, will announce himself a candidate for re-election next year. This would be consistent with a laudable desire to comply with our new charter, which we were all pleased to see the city adopt, and want to see enforced against all alike.

Marshal Crow's case is exactly similar to that of the mayor, so far as the principle of law is concerned. Each was elected last November for four years, and each one of them put out of office for four years because a man's term of office, for no reason, can be curtailed. This is the principle on which each official bases his claim to hold office four years—that he was elected for four years, and a man's term of office cannot be abridged. It is very plain that if the courts decide against Marshal Crow it will be conclusive proof that a man can be put out of office before the term for which he was elected expires; and if one man can be, Mayor Yeiser can be. This is one reason Marshal Crow's case is of so much significance to the mayor. The result means a great deal to him. If he sees that a man cannot necessarily hold on for four years because he was elected for four years he is likely to get a hustle and run next year for the nomination, while if the result indicates that a man can't be put out before he has served the time for which he was elected the mayor may sit back serenely in his office and take things easy, let the other fellows run for the nomination next year, and then lick them in the courts and hold onto his job.

"A fellow feeling makes us wondrous kind," and owing to the interest Mayor Yeiser has taken in the ousting proceedings against Marshal Crow, he ought at least to pay the marshal's attorney fee, because the decision in the marshal's case will also apply in his case, and enable him to map out a campaign for next year.

THE SCRAMBLE BEGINS.

The Democrats of Kentucky are so vicious in their fight for office that they don't seem to care what they do, just so they get the offices and the almighty dollar attached thereto. Committee man Meacham, according to the dispatches, met with the executive committee yesterday for the purpose of determining what to do, whether to hold a convention or a primary. He voted on the question, and by every principle of honor should have been willing, and intended, to abide by the result, or kicked out of the committee beforehand and declined to take any part whatever in the proceedings. Instead, after being defeated in the committee, he hastened to get a restraining order to prevent the committee's carrying out the policy it decided was best. It is exactly similar to a man's going into a primary and voting and then bolting the ticket because the man he wanted was not nominated.

The Democrats of Kentucky are out only after the offices, however. In their scramble they want whatever will enable or assist them to get them, no matter whether it is fair and just or not. Some of the papers that are now howling loudest for a convention were not long ago howling just as loudly against one, and citing as an argument against conventions the Music Hall affair. The only reason they changed was that they think some candidate or candidates they are for stand a better chance under a primary than a convention. It is a matter of greed with them. If a thing offers more opportunities to the crowd they want in office, and from whom they probably expect to get something, they are for that thing, no matter whether it is a convention or a primary, and no matter how unfair or undesirable it may be for the other fellows.

TRUTH WILL PREVAIL.

The announcement from Memphis that the Booker Washington incident was nothing but a fabrication, shows the president in his true light, that of a great man. He never replied to the hysterical ravings of the southern press, which is always unreasonable and bitter, at the time or any time since. He ignored his calumniators, and it remained for a Democrat to expose the falsehood and show the people of the south that they are too eager to abuse their political opponents without waiting to be certain they are right.

General Marcus Wright, who made the statement at Memphis giving the alleged facts, is a prominent Washington Democrat, and in response to the question why the president had never made a denial, replied:

"Because he is too great a man. He believed that it was beneath him to deny a story so palpably false, and that the truth would in time prevail. It is his ambition to be the president of the whole people of the United States, knowing no section or party, and his visit here shows how fond he is of the southern people. He is an aristocrat to the finger tips, and for that reason, aside from the fact that he is the son of a southern woman, would never be willing to acknowledge the social equality of the negro. At the same time he believes as we all do, that everything possible should be done to assist the members of that race in their struggle for higher citizenship, and will be their friend in all their worthy undertakings."

The "On to Pittsburg" move is doubtless destined to do great things for the Ohio river. The people from one end of the river to the other seem to be thoroughly in sympathy with the effort to improve this great waterway, and it is believed that something will in time be accomplished. It may not be this year or next year, nor perhaps for several years, but it will be much sooner now that some effort has been made than it would be if nothing more were done than has been done in past years. A nine foot stage in the Ohio river the year around would have its effect on the entire country, and would greatly improve commerce. It is hoped that the efforts will soon bear fruit.

The day of the train robber does not seem to have passed, after all. The railroad and express companies have been compelled to take concerted action and make a fight against the robbers. The roads have decided to run down robbers to the bitter end hereafter and to offer $1,000 for every dead robber, and a suitable remuneration for live ones.

As a further proof of progress and the ability to govern herself, Cuba is now battling with a big strike involving most of the trades unions. Two were killed and 82 injured in a riot Monday—a pretty good showing for the "infant."

MARRIAGES.

The marriage of Miss Mattie McCreery and Mr. Thomas Roberts was solemnized at the St. Francis de Sales Catholic church this morning with nuptial high mass at 9 o'clock, the Rev. Father H. W. Jansen performing the ceremony. It was a very pretty wedding and was witnessed by a number of friends of the popular young couples. County Attorney Eugene Graves and Mr. W. N. Cabell were the ushers. The bride wore a stylish street costume and looked very attractive. A wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home on West Broadway after the ceremony.

Miss Ella Perry and Mr. Joseph Frazier are to be married at the bride's home on Clark street between Eighth and Ninth tomorrow evening at 8:30 o'clock. It is to be a quiet home wedding and will unite two young people very popular in a large circle of friends. Miss Perry is a very attractive young lady, and Mr. Frazier is an employe of the Michael leather working department.

An unusual coincidence occurred at Metropolis Monday. It was the wedding of two couples. Mr. Otto Schmidt and Miss Electa Stone, of Metropolis, and Mr. Roy Porter of Paducah and Miss Emma Kidd, of Metropolis. Both young ladies were compositors on Metropolis papers, which was the unusual feature of the weddings.

Miss Ruth Hite and Mr. Charles Hughes will be married this evening at McKendree church, near Lamont in the county, Rev. Brassfield officiating. They are well known young people, the groom being a brother of County Assessor John Hughes.

Finis Collier, of the county, aged 27, a sawmill man, and Mattie Bass, of the county, age 21 were this afternoon licensed to wed. It will make the first marriage of the groom and the second of the bride and will take place today.

Ford F. Frazer of the city, aged 28, and Florence Ellen Perry of the city, aged 27, were this afternoon licensed to wed. It will make the first marriage of both and is set for tomorrow.

W. S. Hickman, of Graves county, age 40, and Etta Walters, of the county, age 24, were licensed to wed. It will make the second marriage of both and is set for the 27th.

R. D. Harper, a physician, of the county, age 26 and Rosa Whitelau, of the county, age 22, were licensed to wed. It will make the first marriage of both, and is set for today.

Fred J. Nichols, of Princeton, age 25 and Rosa Cash, of Caldwell county, age 21, were this morning licensed to wed. It will make the first marriage of both.

—On account of the absence of the pastor from the city, and the inclement weather, there will be no prayer meeting at Trimble street Methodist church tonight.

—Leslie Eubanks, the son of Dr. W. C. Eubanks, shot the end of a finger on this morning while playing with a toy pistol. The injury is painful but not serious.

FEEDS ONE—STARVES OTHER

Feeds the body—starves the microbes! That is what Scott's Emulsion does in consumption.

We can't expect to understand all about these germs and microbes the doctors talk of. They say that one kind causes consumption. Consumption microbes feed on weak lungs. Perhaps that's so.

At any rate we know that Scott's Emulsion has a peculiar action on the lungs which gives the lungs new life and vigor. Healthy lungs starve the microbes out.

Life for the lungs and flesh for the body, that is what the consumptive has a right to expect from Scott's Emulsion. An ideal food and tonic for any form of wasting disease.

DEFENDANTS WON

Celebrated Milk Wagon Case Decided by Justice Barber.

Mr. Peery, the Dairyman, loses an Interesting Case in Magistrate's Court.

Justice R. J. Barber has rendered a opinion in the celebrated case of M. B. Peery against Sh'zman, Bradt and Co., and others.

The case is an interesting one and involves many fine points of law. The suit was started when the defendants, who are milk wagon manufacturers, sold to W. Y. Griffith a wagon for $170. Peery was the company's agent here and claimed that he should have had the regular commission of 33 1-3 per cent for the sale. He therefore attached the wagon and brought suit for his commission, $56.68. The case was first brought before Justice Young and later transferred to Barber's court. Justice Barber decided that as Peery had not sold the wagon, and as the company had no contract binding all sales made here to Peery, as their agent, that he was not entitled to the commission. The attachment against the wagon was discharged and a judgment for the defense filed. The defendants then brought in a cross petition asking for damages against Peery for the use of the wagon during the time the attachment was sustained, but this petition was dismissed and all costs adjudged against the plaintiff, M. B. Peery. There were 117 pages of depositions filed in the case and the evidence consumed nearly one week.

THEY CELEBRATED.

TWO CARPENTERS HAD JAGS FOR TRUE LAST NIGHT.

Two Chicago carpenters giving the names of Helmeit Fried and John O'Connors, were arrested last night on a charge of being drunk. A telephone message was received at police headquarters late in the night stating that no one could sleep on West Clay street for the disturbance the men were creating by their shouts. Officers were sent out and arrested them, and this morning they were fined $1 and costs by each Judge Sanders.

THE BOYS MADE UP.

THEY SHOOK HANDS AND THE CHARGE WAS DISMISSED.

The case against Willie Carroll for maliciously cutting Bob Wilkins, son of Mr. Bob Wilkins, the well known blacksmith, came up this morning in the police court, and after investigating it County Attorney Eugene Graves decided that it was nothing but a schoolboys' fight and moved that the warrant be dismissed and the boy fined $10 and costs for a breach of the peace.

The boys were present and shook hands and made it up, and promised to get along better in the future.

MR. LEHNHARD IMPROVING.

Mr. George Lehnhard, of the Leigh Fruit company, who was struck in the head yesterday with a rock by a boy named Harry Stone, is reported better today. Stone has not yet been caught.

ABDUCTED A GIRL

Lieut. Moore Receives a Letter Relative to the Case.

The Offender Alleged to Be a Blind Man, Color Unknown.

Lieutenant T. J. Moore today received a letter from Jackson, Tenn., signed by Mrs. Mary Graves, making inquiry of Paralee Graves, aged 10 years, a girl supposed to have been taken away by a blind man named Westbrook from that place.

The woman does not state whether the man or the girl are colored or white, the local police know nothing about the case and are confident that the pair did not come here, and do not understand how a blind man could kidnap a girl.

The woman says if anything is heard from the child to notify her and she will come at once and prosecute the blind man.

CIRCUIT COURT

THE SESSION BECOMES DULLER AS THE TERM CLOSES.

There has been little done in circuit court today. Judge Husbands is clearing up the equity docket and besides orders of minor importance, only a few judgments have been filed.

In the case of John Rogers, for the use of the Citizens' Savings bank, against Tony Holland, a judgment for the sale of land was filed.

The case of Adam Temple against Rogers was dismissed without prejudice by the plaintiff.

The case of Davis against Matlock was stricken from the docket.

In the case of Nicholas Gunther and others against M. Rosenblatt, the defendant was granted a new trial and the case continued until the 7th day of the January term.

The case of William Grapeman against J. E. Mason was dismissed and settled.

Magnates Had to Wait.

President O. R. Harriman of the Southern Pacific railroad, is no respecter of persons. One day he had appointments at his office with millionaires John W. Mackey and H. E. Huntington, but before they arrived Mr. Harriman was engaged in conversation in his private office with a third person who had entered a few minutes before the magnates of finance. Those gentlemen were therefore compelled to wait until the close of the pending interview, which lasted a full hour. They were furious, but their business was important and they had no recourse but to wait. They stormed a little after they had gained access to the presence they sought, but went away apparently mollified.

POLICE COURT

Dutch Waggener Recognized to go Before the Grand Jury.

Other Cases Heard Today Were of No Importance.

The case against Wood Jones and Henry Waggener, alias "Dutch" Wilson, was finished this morning and Judge Sanders held the latter over to the action of the grand jury on his own recognizance and dismissed the warrant against Jones, who was alleged to have gone to the foundry to aid Waggener in whipping Heck Grogan who was assaulted.

Grogan was struck over the right eye by Wilson who claims he did it with a stick. Grogan thinks it was done with knuckles which the defendant had moulded that day. The fight occurred Monday afternoon late in the Jackson foundry where both men work. Waggener was charged with malicious assault with intent to kill.

James Gaines, colored, was recognized to appear Friday to answer to the charge of using insulting and profane language in public.

The malicious shooting case against Henry McElmore, colored, was again continued.

George Hall was fined $1 and costs for a plain drunk.

Alex Storrie was fined $30 and costs for violating the Sabbath and Sam Cochran, the negro who claimed he was selling whiskey for Storrie, was fined a similar amount for a similar offense.

Sam Marshall and Ben Lindsey, for a breach of the peace, were fined $3 and costs each.

The case against Curtis Husbands, colored for maliciously cutting Pete Bruce, was continued until Friday.

Lest We Forget.

It is a good thing to preserve all important historic sites and relics which can still be identified or are still in existence. We have been far too neglectful of such things. Through popular and official carelessness and sometimes through sheer vandalism, many precious objects have been lost forever and some places have become impossible to identify with precision. The lost cannot be restored, but all that still exist may be preserved. We shall do well to preserve them on grounds as practical as they are sentimental. There is no occasion to begrudge the setting apart of land for such purposes. Land is valuable for other things than the building of houses or the growing of potatoes.—New York Tribune.

SCHOOL NEWS

Musical Program for the District Teachers Meeting

Prof. Harry Gilbert Has Written a March—Dedicated to High School.

Friday has been made a holiday by the school board to accommodate the members of the First District Education Association, which convenes at the High school on the morning of the 28. A regular program has been arranged for the day's session and the following is an additional program that has been arranged for the evening of the 28th:

1. Invocation—Rev. J. C. Reid.
2. Duot, "Poet and Peasant" Suppe—Miss Brazelton, Prof. Gilbert.
3. Chorus, "Song of the Vikings." Facing—Paducah Choral Club.
4. Address, "The Education That Best Fits for Life"—A. R. Taylor, Phd. Pres. James Milikin University, Decatur, Ill.
5. Duot, "International Fantasia." Epstein—Miss Brazelton, Prof. Gilbert.

Prof. Harry Gilbert, the well known musician, has written a march and dedicated it to the High school. He will shortly go to work on a chorus, which will be used as the class chorus at the regular commencement exercises of this year's class. He will arrange the chorus for orchestra and will drill the class in person.

Miss Ada Brazelton, one of the teachers in the High school, is preparing a program for a literary and musical entertainment which will be held at the High school on the 19th of the next month. This will be the first musical entertainment that will be given at the High school and all are invited.

NOW IN MURPHYSBORO.

Mr. H. J. Foppe formerly with the Rhodes-Burford company here, but who left several weeks ago with the "Down in Hopkins" company, is now in Murphysboro, Ill., working for the Jones Installation company. He left the show some time ago.

Mr. W. S. Griffith and daughter, of Benton, are visiting in the city.

A FALSE HEART.

COFFEE DOES NOT LET IT BEAT TRUE.

"Coffee served me a very hard turn about two years ago. My doctor said I had chronic dyspepsia with serious heart and nervous trouble, and nothing would cure me unless I gave up coffee," said Miss Hattie Williams of Birmingham, Ala. "My stomach got so bad that I could not eat any solid food without its nauseating me, and I was so nervous I could not sleep and my heart was in a dreadful condition. I had heard a great deal about Postum Food Coffee and how much good people had derived from changing from coffee to Postum, so one day I sent to the grocer for a package.

"The first cup I drank helped me, for it removed all the gas from my stomach, or perhaps the quitting of coffee produced that result; at any rate in less than a week there was a wonderful change; no more restless nights; no more pains around my heart that made me think I had heart trouble; no more sick stomach. This was two years ago. I am now entirely well and Postum cured me. I found it was not medicine I needed, but proper food and nourishment and to quit coffee entirely.

"My brother-in-law, a coffee drinker, was very sick with stomach trouble and all he could eat was the white of an egg. I insisted on his trying Postum. He said the first cup he drank soothed his stomach and was nourishing; in a few days he was able to eat solid food again, and now he uses it altogether and does not use coffee.

"My next door neighbor, another coffee drinker, had suffered with catarrh of the stomach, and for months could not eat anything—was just living on beef tea. I carried her some Postum and gave her directions for making it, and now she can eat anything she wants and it does not hurt her. She says she feels better than she has for ten years.

"I could tell you of dozens of people who have been benefited by leaving off coffee and drinking Postum. It has done me so much good I tell everybody to use it. I have been using it now for two years and my digestion is fine, my complexion clear and everyone says I look ten years younger."

Theatrical Notes.

Prof. Wm. Deal's orchestra is winning much praise from the patrons of The Kentucky, and renders at every performance high class music in most excellent style. The program for Mrs. Brune tonight is:

- March, "Imperial Edward"—Souza.
- Overture, "Stradella"—Flotow.
- "Camila" Waltz—Bennett.
- a Sextette from "Lucia"—Donizette.
- b. "Last Hope"—Gottschalk.
- Exit March, "The Bachelor Maids"—J. Floyd St. Clair.

Jule Walters' comic play, "Side Tracked," which is now in its fourteenth year of prosperity, will be presented at The Kentucky on Saturday matinee and night. "Side Tracked" is described as a pure comedy with beautiful scenery, strong mechanical effects and many clever specialties. The play has been rewritten and is virtually new except the stronger comedy points; even the stage settings are changed. Popular prices will prevail.

"A Normandy Wedding" which will be the attraction at The Kentucky Thanksgiving day matinee and night is described as being a genuine comedy set to most tuneful and melodious music. It is adapted from the French by J. Cheever Goodwin with new and original music by William Furst. The dialogue and lyrics are said to be exceptionally bright, at times being positively brilliant. The Grace Cameron company that presents "A Normandy Wedding" is an extraordinarily strong musical organization and quite up to the high standard for which Manager Fred C. Whitney has become noted.

The Evansville Courier says: The Lillian Mortimer company, a capital organization of popular players opened at the Grand last night to a tremendous house—one of the largest ever seen in the history of the Grand. The play "A Gambler's Sweetheart," a strong comedy drama which gives dainty Lillian Mortimer scope to display her splendid talent. She is a magnetic actress of rare ability and surpasses anything ever seen in Evansville at popular prices. The company is a strong one, and made a pronounced hit. The specialties are high class and above the average.

The above company comes to The Kentucky for all of next week excepting Tuesday, including daily bargain matinees. Beginning Monday, December 1.

NEWS OF THE RIVERS.

Observations taken at 7 a. m. River 4.3 on the gauge, a rise of 0.6 in last 24 hours. Wind northwest, a good breeze. Weather raining and cooler. Temperature 40.

Pell, Observer.

The Joe Fowler cleared for Cairo this morning on time.

The Inverness will depart today for Tennessee river for ties.

The Bob Dudley will arrive this afternoon from Evansville.

The Charleston left last night for Cumberland river on her regular trip.

The Memphis will arrive today from St. Louis on her way to Tennessee river.

The Carrsville arrived this morning from the Cumberland river with a good trip.

The Mary Stewart left this morning for Elizabethtown, Ill., on her regular trip.

The Richardson arrived late yesterday from Evansville and departed on her return trip late in the afternoon.

The Butterff will arrive today from Nashville and will return at 6 o'clock tonight on her first trip since the low stage of water.

Captain A. L. Cummins, a widely known riverman and president of the Memphis and Vicksburg Packet company, is dead at his home in Memphis aged 66.

The Clyde will leave this afternoon late for Tennessee river on her regular trip. She was to have laid here for repairs longer but was sent out today. The Harry will lay up here for a while.

The final papers for the sale of the steamer New South were signed by the interested parties yesterday. The boat becomes the property of a corporation in New Orleans, which intends to engage in the river excursion business this winter. The price of the steamer was not made public. She was the property of the Cincinnati, Memphis and New Orleans Packet company.

The pilot house, which served the old towboat Dick Fulton for many years is aground on a bar in the Ohio river at the trap at Sewickley. The pilot house was being floated on the flat to Sewickley, where it is to be placed in the yard of Captain Fred Dippold, overlooking the Ohio river. In a telephone will be installed by the river coal combination, which will be informed from that point as to the passing of steamers owned by the company.

The Pittsburg Gazette says: "The present season according to old mariners, has been a very mild one, as far as weather conditions are concerned. This time last year ice was floating in the Monongahela river, but there is no sign of a cold wave now. The lateness of the season has caused many to remark that the coming winter will not be productive of very cold weather. Heavy clouds were visible last night and the air felt as though it might rain."

There was a meeting of the Pilots' corporation held in Pittsburg a few days ago. Mr. Grant stated that the corporation will begin paying all of the members $25 a month, in accordance with the agreement of the association, and that the money will be paid by the financial men who are backing the enterprise. The promoters are endeavoring to control piloting, by having it done on a tonnage basis, similar to the system in vogue in New York.

Captain Mark Cole, who yesterday drafted and circulated a petition among the prominent business men and manufacturers of the city, asking President Theodore Roosevelt to incorporate in his message to congress a clause recommending improvements to the Ohio river, met with great success and got over one hundred and fifty signers. In many instances girls who had been left in charge of offices, refused to sign for their employers, claiming they had no authority. Captain Cole desired to get his petition off last night, and had to make haste in getting it signed and was in this way somewhat delayed. He finished in time to get it off last night.

TO DISCUSS THE SHOOT.

Members of the Paducah Gun club will meet at Bronaugh's this evening at 7:30 o'clock for the purpose of hearing reports from various committees relative to the big shoot proposed to be given next spring. The exact date has not yet been fixed.

Mrs. Frank Grosvenor,
No. 212 Twenty-first St., Galveston, Tex.
GALVESTON, TEX.,
March 13, 1902.

For three years after my marriage I felt peculiar bearing-down pains such as I had never experienced before. I tried different remedies but found it was only money wasted. I then consulted a physician who treated me for two months and then said my ovaries were diseased and that I would never get well unless I had an operation. I knew that would mean that I would never have a child and I dreaded the ordeal. I changed physicians but found this did not help me any, and I was in despair.

My sister-in-law then visited me and when I told her of my trouble she said: "If you had used common sense and Wine of Cardui you would not have been in such a plight." She had used it in her own home and it had carried her through three times when she had children. I sent for some at once and took it faithfully and now find to my great joy that it was all she claimed for it. New strength and with it new hope came back to me and it seemed as if every dose gave me new life. Within three months I was changed from a dragged out mortal weary of life to a hearty, healthy woman full of ambition and life. No operation was needed and better than all I became the mother of a little girl, the pride and joy of the household. I have had two other children since without a particle of trouble. I am well and never take any medicine but Wine of Cardui. I only write that other poor sick women could know of this life-giving medicine and would take it without spending time and money on doctors, who don't cure.

Mrs. Frank Grosvenor.

WINE OF CARDUI, the simple remedy which Mrs. Grosvenor advises you to take has transformed her from a sick, discouraged woman to the bright, happy, healthy person you see in this portrait. Instead of languishing on a bed of sickness Mrs. Grosvenor is now equipped for any duty of womanhood. There are some chronic cases which no medicine can cure but nineteen out of every twenty sufferers today may have the health Mrs. Grosvenor has if they will only take the Wine of Cardui treatment as Mrs. Grosvenor took it. This vegetable Wine regulates the menstrual flow, making this important function both healthful and painless. The bearing-down pains which make life a torture stop when Wine of Cardui is used and the terrible smarting pains and the inflammation cease. Though powerful in correcting the irregularities of menstruation, Wine of Cardui is a very mild medicine. Any woman may take it without a doctor's supervision, although doctors often give it to their patients when their own remedies fail. This Wine of Cardui treatment is taken quietly at home. No embarrassing private examinations or offensive operations are necessary. If you secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui and begin taking it today you will feel health returning before the month is up. Why not secure a dollar bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist at once? Do not accept any other medicine but the Wine of Cardui treatment which Mrs. Grosvenor writes about.

WINE of CARDUI

2½ Tons will heat your home comfortably with a FAVORITE HEATER.

Even if hard coal costs $10 per ton it would be cheaper for you in the Favorite Base Burner than $6 coal in other makes. This is a positive fact and Scott, the stove dealer, will prove it to you or refund your money. It heats using soft coal at any price.

It beats using gas and we all know about using gas in zero weather.

All people have been more or less worried on the fuel subject. The Favorite Base Burner will positively settle your worry in the most satisfactory and economical way.

"Really, now"—Kendall began.

"Look here," interrupted Elmendorf.
"If there's anything of that kind going on, I'm the man you need. Don't hide anything from me; for the little girl's sake, don't do it, doctor."

Kendall bit his lips and hesitated.
Then he said suddenly, as steps were heard in the hall:

"Get him out of here and come back."
Alden entered and stopped short, in his own peculiar fashion, with his eyes on the doctor.

"It's all right," said Kendall. "Miss Miller showed some indications of weakness, but is doing nicely now. I should think you might see her about 5 o'clock."

"Well, doctor, I'm glad everything's all right," said Elmendorf. "I began to be anxious, you were so long away.
But what you've said has made me feel easy again, and so I think the best thing that Mr. Alden and I can do is to try to get some light on Mr. Robinson's strange conduct. The man may have struck some kind of a blow and have rushed right off to verify it without waiting to consult anybody."

"I didn't think of that," responded Alden. "It may be that you've found the explanation."

"I would suggest that you go to his house," said Elmendorf. "Meanwhile I'll telephone to your office and one or two other places and see if I can get track of him. But the likeliest place is his house. Wait there for me. I'll join you before 3."

This arrangement was agreed upon,
and the two men went out together.
Elmendorf was busy with the telephone for half an hour, but he failed

He sat down and rested his head on his hands.

to extract valuable information from any person with whom he talked, although the chief of the detective bureau was one of them.

Returning to the hospital, he went at once to Kendall's room. In answer to his rap and the sound of his voice the door was unlocked and he was admitted. In passing he glanced searchingly at Kendall's face, which wore an expression of extreme anxiety; then he advanced to the table in the middle of the room, from which he lifted a newspaper, thus revealing the bodies of two little white mice.

Elmendorf regarded them with a look of horror.

"Good Lord!" he gasped. "You don't mean it?"

Kendall nodded. Then he sat down and rested his head on his hands for a few seconds, while Elmendorf gathered breath and heart for the next question.

"What was in the jar—milk?"

"No," replied Kendall. "It is a kind of liquid food preparation. The basis of it is milk; but, unfortunately," he added, looking up at the detective, "it will keep."

"Been in the room several days, you mean?" said Elmendorf. "If it was ordinary milk that had been dosed, we could narrow it down to a few hours.
But this stuff—why, absolutely everybody connected with the case has had a chance at it."

"How shall I tell her?" muttered Kendall.

"Her?"

The doctor gave a nervous start.
"Miss MacLane," he said. "This will be a hard story for her to hear."

"You are right," replied Elmendorf,
"after all the care she's taken, the devotion she's shown to that poor child, who was nothing to her—worse than nothing, in fact—an enemy, you might say."

"Now, look here"—exclaimed Kendall hoarsely as he got upon his feet.
"No, no!" cried Elmendorf. "I don't mean to accuse her. That would be absurd. We mustn't waste time. What was the poison?"

"I don't know," replied Kendall. "Of course there was no time for analysis.
That's why I tried it on these small animals. It's some kind of a heart depressant—the very thing to use in a case of this kind, where the condition is one of weakness and especially where there is an injury in the region of the organ."

"But didn't these mice show any symptoms that you could recognize?"
asked Elmendorf.

"No; nothing definite. I could name several poisons that would answer all the requirements. It isn't necessary to know immediately. The treatment would be the same in any case. And the danger is over, I believe."

"Unless it's somewhere else," said Elmendorf; "in her medicines, perhaps."

"That wouldn't be possible without assuming something that can't be assumed—not in my presence, at any rate."

"You mean that Miss MacLane?"

"Precisely," said Kendall. "And as there can be no thought of such a thing we conclude that this infernal thing"—and he tapped the jar with his knuckles—"which was handy for everybody, wide mouthed and all that—Oh, I have been an idiot!"

"She's been having this right along," said Elmendorf. "That might indicate—"

"Nothing until we know just what the stuff is and how much of it we have to deal with," replied Kendall.
"The effects observed may come from what she ate this noon or be the general result of small, repeated doses."

"There's one thing," said Elmendorf with decision—"this villainous act must have been done by somebody who knew the food was there, by some one who had been in the room several times—"

"Don't!" groaned Kendall. "By heavens, I can't bear to think of it! I like Alden. I can't believe this of him.
And—and she loves him; she loves him just as much now as ever."

"Miss MacLane?" said Elmendorf.
"My friend, I don't believe it."
Kendall looked up at him with a blank stare and shook his head.

CHAPTER XVI.

ELSIE PERPETRATES A JEST.

"HEY say," remarked Elsie, "that people always feel particularly well just before they die. Do you remember Bernhardt in 'Camille,'
the very last words before she dies in Armand's arms: 'I shall live! Ah, how well I feel! How I cried when she said that! And then Gaston says, 'She sleeps.' Isn't that a lovely scene?"

"As it came to your mind at this moment," said Brenda, "I joyfully infer that you are feeling very much better."
"You must think I am silly to talk so much about dying," said Elsie. "I am soggy with sentimentality."

"You have mentioned it on just four occasions," said Brenda, "including this, but it seems often to us because we don't wish to lose you and to yourself because really and truly you don't wish to die. On the whole, you have been as cheerful as any girl could possibly be under the circumstances, and as for your sentimentality, my dear, I'd give the world to have some of it myself."

"I was going to say," continued Elsie, "that my motive for continually harping on it is that you may know I am not afraid, and afterward you may tell Mr. Alden."

This exchange of pleasantries upon a cheerful subject occurred during the time when Kendall was experimenting with the white mice.

"I must have been pretty near it the last time," said Elsie. "It was double.
I scarcely knew what was the matter
when it began, even though I'd fainted such a little while before. It was like drifting, drifting away. You are surprised. You think you must stop, and before you really have time to be frightened you are gone. But I waked just for a second—just long enough to remember and realize; then down, down, down, sideways to the left there, slipping away from the room and the light. The last was a sensation that they were lowering me into the ground.
But I'm going to be cremated. You've promised me that, Brenda."

Then, catching the expression of amused horror—if that can be—on Brenda's face, she laughed with the most delicious and clear sound, like the singing of birds.

"Oh, but it hurts to laugh," she said.
"You mustn't make me do it."

"I'll cry Brenda. 'You're the first that ever accused me of being amusing.'"

"Do you know," said Elsie, "that of the two of us you're the blue one? It's much more cheerful to talk about dying than to 'roast' oneself as you do."

"Roasting is popularly supposed to be one step beyond dying," replied Brenda. "But I suppose the roasting you mean is the saying of uncomplimentary things. My child, I can't help it; I suffer by contrast."

"With me?" cried Elsie. "Now you really are amusing. If I had your hair and eyes! Well, that's absurd, of course. But do you know I lie here imitating your ways, your calm, gentle, sweet way of doing things? I'm studying you, Brenda, and if I were to play a society part again you'd see!
This is the way you say: 'Good morning, Dr. Kendall.' * * * Ah, thank you so much. * * * Shall we see you again soon? * * * Goodbye.' You make all the little things mean something. That's dignity, personality. I haven't any more than a blade of grass, but I'm gaining rather."

"Do I speak like that when I address Dr. Kendall?" said Brenda, with a slight access of color. "Well, it may be so. You are very clever, my dear."

"This is the way you hold your arms when you walk," said Elsie.
"Isn't that pretty? Of course I can't do it very well lying down, but see the fingers and the ease of the wrist.
Were you taught to do that?"

"I used to have a governess who was crazy on Delsarte," replied Brenda.
"But she presently went crazy on all other subjects also, and we had to send the poor thing to an institution. I was not aware of my debt to her."

"You owe her a great deal," said Elsie. "I wish I'd had a lunatic of that kind in my family. I couldn't afford to have much teaching. Of course I had some, but when I found what my mother was enduring in order to pay for it—well, I took an engagement with the first thing that came along. And it was a barnstorming crew! We gave six plays a week, and I had to learn a long part in every one of them. The second Monday, in the afternoon, the leading lady came into my room and found me huddled up on the floor in the corner gibbering—just gibbering, that was all—words out of all the plays, as she told me afterward, all jumbled together, and I was cross-eyed with sitting up all night studying under little flickering gas jets. Yes, that's the way she found me, and the room was as cold as a barn too. I had the bed quilt wrapped around my shoulders and my arm through a hole in it."

"The leading lady yelled to the juvenile man, and he really was juvenile —about 18, as I remember. She said,
'Go get a glass of brandy!' The juvenile man went down to the bar and came back with a tumbler solid full.
He had to carry it carefully in order to keep from spilling any. The leading lady was a temperance woman. She never touched a drop of wine, and, in fact, she was a regular straitlaced
New England pilgrim, but somebody had told her once that brandy was good for the thing that I had—'white brain,' we call it. The juvenile man didn't know how much brandy a person ought to take, and I—well, I didn't know anything. So I drank it all, and then I lay down on the bed, and the leading lady covered me with everything she could find, and pretty soon the bed got up and stood on the ceiling, and I didn't care at all."

"When it came time to go to the theater (Brenda, it's disgraceful, but I was so—so drunk that I couldn't walk straight) the leading lady got me up and told the juvenile man to walk me around the block, and he walked me around about fifty times in the snow.
We were in a little Minnesota town, and it had snowed for a week. When he took me to the theater, I was perfectly sober, and I didn't care for anything. I had no troubles whatever. I walked up to the stage manager, and I said cheerfully, 'Well, what do we play tonight?' He told me, and I couldn't remember ever to have heard of it, but I got out my part and studied it while I was making up."

YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD AT THIS STORE FOR ALL YOU NEED TO FURNISH YOUR HOME

We have arranged a number of bargain values in goods and articles particularly suitable for Thanksgiving use, and we print a few of them in this advertisement—by no means all that we can and do show. Our qualities include the very highest class as well as the medium, reliable grades and they are all so priced that even the figures alone would make them interesting offers at any time. Your purchase will be promptly delivered and we guarantee satisfaction in every sale we make. No matter what it is you need, or think you need, you can come here and get it and pay for it as best suits your convenience. We take this occasion to thank the people for their generous support and patronage and hope that we have assisted in making Thanksgiving a joyous feast to all patrons.
